and missile programs. He said the members who would be present are: Representatives Don Fuqua (D., Fla.), Larry Winn, Jr. (R., Kansas), Thomas Downing (D., Va.), James Symington (D., Mo.), Walter Flowers (D., Ala.), John Wydler (R., N.Y.), and Lou Frey, Jr. (R., Fla.). He said if there was any change in this he would let me know. They would like a briefing on the morning of 10 December. I told him I didn't think there would be any problem and I would be back in touch.

20. ADMINISTRATIVE Called Don Lynch, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, and asked if he could come to Headquarters on Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. for a briefing by Messrs. and George Cary. He said he wasn't sure what the Committee schedule would be for Wednesday and asked that I call him tomorrow afternoon to see if he can come out here or if the briefers should go to his office. I told him I would call him tomorrow. was advised.

21. ADMINISTRATIVE Called Clark McFadden, General Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, and alerted him to the proposed amendment by Senator James Abourezk (D., S. Dak.) to the Defense Appropriations bill. I told him this was something he should focus on. He appreciated my calling it to his attention.

I discussed with McFadden the matter of oversight jurisdiction which is being drafted by the Select Committees and he suggested that I bring this up with Chairman John Stennis (D., Miss.) at our Friday session. He said he has mentioned this to Senator Stennis a number of times, but felt I should try to impress upon the Chairman the importance of this.

22. ADMINISTRATIVE Talked with Frank Demarco, in the New Jersey office of Representative William Hughes (D., N.J.) and told him that , OTR, would be happy to speak to the Bridgeton, New Jersey Rotary Club. Mr. Demarco and I agreed it would be best to put directly in touch with the president of the Club so they could work out the details. He did say, however, that the Club would not be able to pay for transportation. I told him I would advise of this. The president of the Club is Mr. J. Alan Woodruff, . His telephone number is Area
